Aims and Scope

Journal of Children's Services (JCS) encourages the international development of research-based, outcome-focused services to better safeguard and promote the well-being of children and their families locally, nationally and internationally.

JCS improves understanding of the way that applied social research can contribute to the evidence-base and promote the integration of children's services. This includes services delivered by health, education, social care, police, youth justice and voluntary/independent agencies.

The journal's peer-reviewed coverage includes:
